

RDA = Resource Description and Access

- Replacement for AACR2
- Library of Congress implemented March 31, 2013
- Fundamental re-thinking of cataloguing theory and practice based on FRBR
 - FRBR foundation--Work, Expression, Manifestation, Item
 - Clearly indicated the nature of relationships (e.g., between works and creators)

Things that change with RDA

- What you see in catalog records
 - No more abbreviations
 - No more Latin terms
 - Additional Fields (336, 337, 338)
- Conceptual changes in how we think about cataloging and how we do cataloging

FRBR = Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records

User Tasks	=	Find	Identify	Select	Obtain
